

The Peggy's Cove Commission can consider amendments to the Land Submit a request to amend the Use Bylaw to change the zoning map Land Use Bylaw ("rezoning") or to change the text (e.g. to change a regulation). However, the Commission is under no obligation to Commission votes on whether or not to initiate the amendment process or to Reject approve a requested amendment. initiate the amendment process Before applying for an amendment please carefully review Part 2 and Commission establishes methods Section 10.1 of the Land Use Bylaw. of public engagement Preliminary engagement (if any) Commission prepares drafts of the amendments Commission reviews the criteria of Reject --Amend-Section 10.7 and votes to reject, amend, or approve the amendments for Public Hearing Notice of Public Hearing AT LEAST 21 CLEAR DAYS IN ADVANCE Public Hearing Commission reviews results of the Public Substantive Hearing and votes to reject, amend, or Reject -Amendment adopt the amendments Amendments denied. Submission for review by the The Land Use Bylaw does Minister responsible for the Peggy's Cove Commission Act not provide for appeal Amendments are registered and go into effect 2024.08.01